Morning Time

When you go into your child's room, cuddle them and say: "Good morning, [child's name]! I have a yummy breakfast for us! While we eat, we can think of ways we can share today because Jesus teaches us it's important to share what we have."

Cuddle Time

Drive Time

While on the go, look for a barn or storage building. Take guesses as to what might be in the barn/building. Talk about the story Jesus told about the man who built bigger barns to store all of his food instead of sharing it with others. Now name one thing you can share today.

Bath Time

Add two plastic cups and a spoon to bath time. Fill one cup with water. Say, "The cup with lots of water wants to share with the empty cup. Can you help the cup share by scooping water with this spoon?" As they scoop water, say, "You're doing a great job sharing! Jesus teaches us that it's important to share."
